Book Proposals

& Traditional Publishing

You've spent a lot of time on this project—maybe even years! But you are finally finished your final draft!

You want to get published.

Now the hard part begins! You have a lot of tough decisions waiting for you along the road to getting published.

First things first, you have to decide if you would like to self-publish, spend thousands of dollars on a partnership contract with a hybrid publisher or try your hand at submitting your manuscript to a publisher.

What is a Book Proposal?

If you decided that you'd like to find a traditional publisher for your manuscript, then you have to write a Book Proposal.

A book proposal is a very technical document that can be simply described as the ultimate sales pitch for your book to the publisher.

Depending on the publisher's preferences, a book proposal could consist of:

- Query Letter
- Synopsis
- Sample of the Writing
- Market Analysis
- Competitive Analysis
- Author Biography & Platform
- Promotional Plan

Each one of these documents inside the proposal have technical requirements, that if not done properly, could result in the publisher moving onto the next proposal on their pile.

And you don't want that.

The only way to ensure that your book gets seen and acknowledged for the gem that it is, is by hiring a professional!

Proposal Writing & Distribution Packages

We know what publishers are looking for

We have submitted dozens of proposals to publishers on behalf of clients and have received high praise from publishers receiving those documents.

On average our clients receive 1-3 requests for more information from a publisher upon submission of a proposal that we have written for them.

We know which publishers are looking for unsolicited submissions

There are thousands of publishers out there who accept unsolicited submissions from authors and their editors. Over the years we have collected contact information, submission requirements and other data from hundreds of publishers and organized it by genre. At this time we have working publisher databases for: historical fiction, speculative fiction (i.e, sci-fi and fantasy), children's picture books, Young adults, romance and more.

"It was delightful to receive such a well written and professionally laid out submission. You have a fascinating synopsis and excerpt."

How to SUBMIT

Go to our website using this link:

<https://www.stonecreekediting.ca/service-request-form>

and fill out the service request form.

We will then send you an email confirming that we have received your submission. We will ask you to submit the following information:

1) A little blurb about yourself, when you started to write, and what your writing ambitions are.

2) A synopsis of the whole book

3) An outline (if you have one already; otherwise we will develop one together)

3) The Full Manuscript. Don't worry if it isn't finished or even started yet. Just send us anything that you have.

If you have any questions regarding this process please reach out:
